CLEAR GOVERNOR IN PARDON PROBE

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE FAILS TO FIND ANY FACT TENDING TO PROVE CHARGES OF
CAMPBELL RUSSELL.

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 28.—A complete exoneration of Governor Robertson and the pardon and parole department against which charges had been made by Campbell Russell printed in his publication, is contained in the report of the house of representatives' special committee of investigation read by Paul Nesbitt of McAlester, chairman of the committee.

The committee investigating the charge against the governor and the pardon and parole department, summarized its findings as follows: "After having considered all the evidence that has been submitted to your committee, we unhesitatingly report that the statements and insinuations made by Campbell Russell against the pardon and parole department of this state and against the governor are unsupported by facts and do not constitute a charge of any nature.

"To the minds of this committee Russell has failed to observe the most common rules of evidence to substantiate his charges. He states specifically to the committee that he has no charges and cannot make any charges against the governor or the pardon and parole department involving misconduct, malfeasance or any act involving moral turpitude."

The report declared that the pardon and parole department officials had been doing the utmost in their judgment for the best interests of society and the unfortunate men and women in their care and keeping.

The house ordered the report printed in the journal and also 1,000 extra copies printed and sent to all the newspapers in the state.

Governor Robertson appeared before the house just before adjournment and thanked the members for the prompt manner in which they had done the work of the special session.

Report Long One.

The report of the investigating committee consists of 20 typewritten pages and is a record of testimony and findings in respect to executive clemency granted through the pardon and parole department to Paul Hadley, Guy McKenzie, Chester Miller, Hickman Willis and McKie Ralston. The investigation followed in general, the report says, the outline of allegations made by Russell in a statement addressed to the legislature and published Thursday afternoon in a special number of his paper, "The Cat."

Testimony is reported as having been made by Russell, John H. Burford, Governor Robertson, O. H. Searcy, Gen. Roy Hoffman, Lieutenant Governor Trapp, Preslie B. Cole, E. P. Hill and T. W. Smith.

Beyond passing a motion to receive the report and discharge the committee, the house took no action upon the matter of Russell's charges. Governor Robertson listened to the reading of the report from a seat in the rear of the house chamber.

Summarizing the investigation, the committee concludes its report as follows:

"As will be found in the record of the testimony, Russell did not attempt to correct the mis-statements when it was brought to his attention that he had made them. He insisted upon publishing time and again statements that were not true and upon the evidence of reliable men, had been called to his attention.

Thorough Study Made.

"Your committee has gone very thoroughly into the records of the pardon and parole departments of this state in all the cases called to its attention. We desire to say those records are complete, containing every letter, recommendation and protest in the matter of pardons and paroles of the many cases filed. After examining the records, hearing the testimony of Governor Robertson and O. H. Searcy, the parole attorney, we are convinced, these officials have been doing the utmost in their judgment for the best interest of society and the unfortunate men and women in their care.

"In his testimony Russell admitted that as corporation commissioner he had issued orders raising rates of public service corporations in the various towns and cities of the state. He admitted that corporations attorneys representing millions of dollars, appeared before him asking that the rates of their corporations be raised. And he admitted that if the same line of reasoning were applied to him that he applied to the governor in the matter of paroles, that the consumers who were forced to pay the advanced rates would be justified in believing he was filling his pockets with corporation money in return for the raise of rates.

IS WOMAN DEAD DOCTORS BAFLED

PREPARATIONS FOR FUNERAL
HAD BEEN MADE, BUT PHYSICIAN AND OFFICERS ARE NOT SURE SHE IS DEAD

By The Associated Press
MENA, Ark., March 1.—Physicians and officers of Polk County, Arkansas, are unable to determine whether Mrs. Lee Shelton is dead or alive. Mrs. Shelton, a young woman living in the country east of Mena, went to bed apparently in perfect health the evening before. A four weeks old baby slept by her side, and it was the crying of the baby that aroused the husband early this morning. Neighbors were called in and they pronounced the woman dead. Preparations were made for the funeral, but when Dr. J. G. Hilton was called in, he refused to let the funeral proceed.

Sheriff J. A. Thornton was also called and he too refused to pronounce the woman dead.

ITALIAN COAL 10 TIMES OUR PRICE

THE ENORMOUS PRICES OF ALL NECESSITIES SEVERE CHECK ON COUNTRY'S RETURN TO PROSPERITY.

By The Associated Press
ROME, Feb. 29.—Enormous purchases of coal and foodstuffs which Italy is compelled to make abroad in depreciated currency constitutes the severest check to this country's return to prosperity, says Alfred B. Dennis, the American Commercial Attaché, in an interview in the Popolo Romano.

Mr. Dennis points out that the price of coal in Italy is ten times the price in the United States and that this cripples all Italy's coal-consuming industries and upsets the balance of production between Italy and her industrial competitors. The American Attaché says, however, that in his opinion this condition is merely temporary and will be improved with the lowering of freight rates and the opening of new sources of supply.

"I judge that Italy would be helped at this juncture," said Mr. Dennis, "if attention could be called in the United States to the opportunities now offered for the investment of American dollars in Italian enterprises. In my opinion it would cause less future strain and anxiety if a great part of the credits which Italy desires abroad should naturally come through the purchase by Americans of Italian securities. Under the present rates of exchange the investment of American dollars in Italy appears to offer exceptional opportunities to the investor.

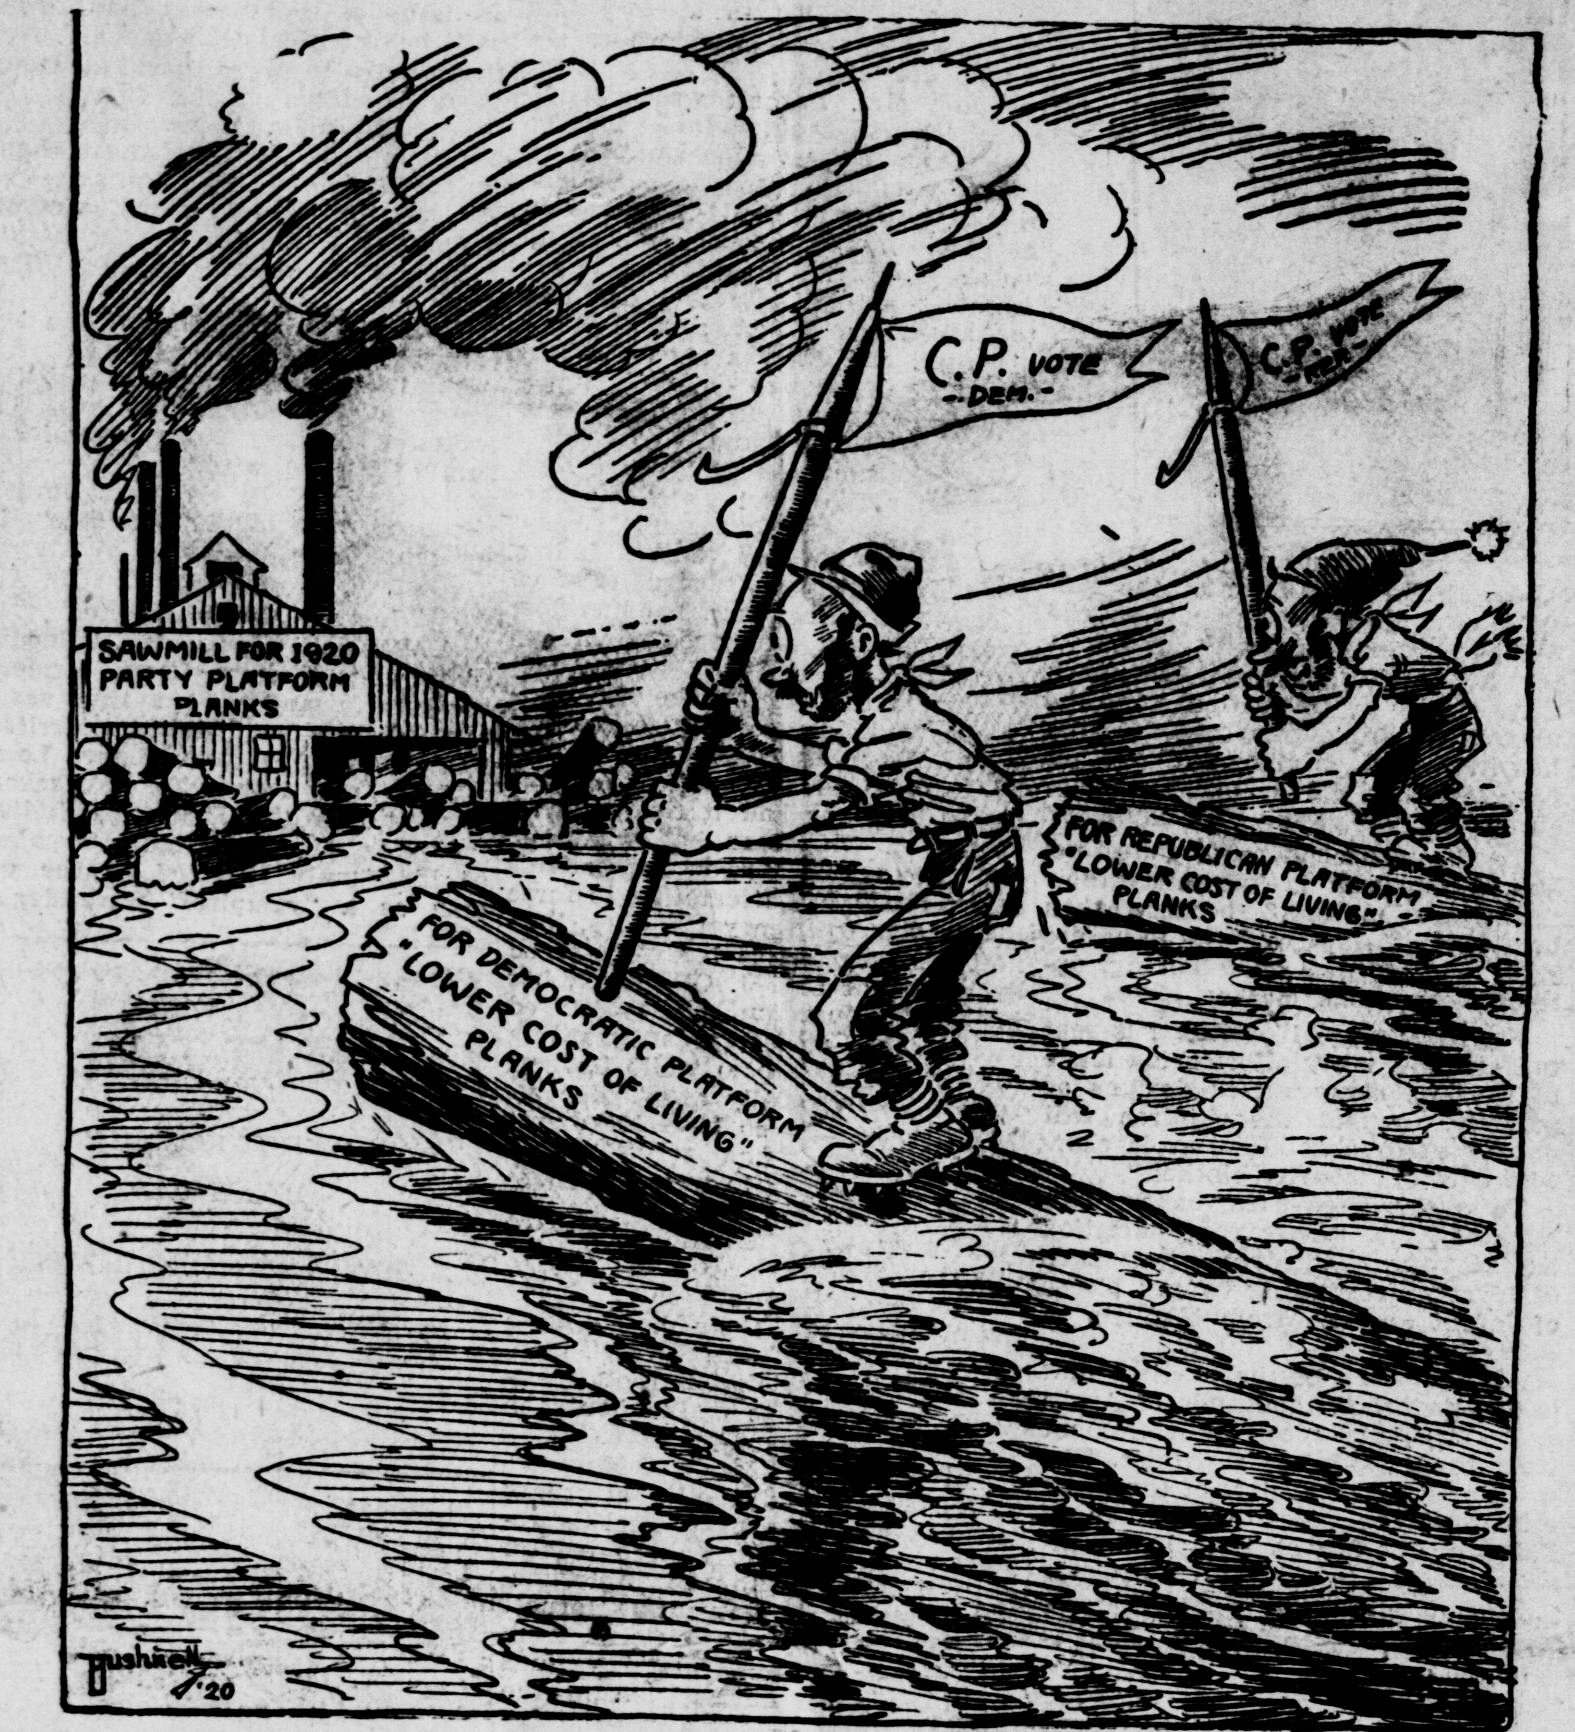

"Italy is the only one of the great belligerent nations which has come out of the conflict richer in manpower than it went into it. Half a million men were lost in the battle, but this was compensated by the return of reservists and the arrest for three years of the stream of emigration. Italy has a population today, exceeding the total civilized population of South America and is probably richer in manpower than any like portion of the surface of the earth. This eager abundant labor in many instances is touched with a genius for artistic creation, and constitutes one of Italy's most valuable assets."

Farmer Loses Residence in Fire Sunday Night

The residence of C. D. Dotson three miles south of Vanoss was destroyed by fire last night about ten o'clock. All of the contents of the home except a few small articles were burned up. The family had retired for the night before the fire was discovered and it had made such headway that it was found impossible to check the flames. Mr. Dotson received some rather painful burns in attempting to save some of the household goods, only a very small amount of insurance was carried on the building.

Mr. Dotson moved from the vicinity of Ada to his present home less than three months ago and has a large number of friends here who sympathize with him in his misfortune. He is a widower and makes his home together with his four children on the farm.

JUDGE'S FRIENDS MUCH PLEASED

PROSPECT FOR ADA TO HAVE AS HER FIRST CITIZEN LEARN-ED JURIST AND LAW EN-FORCER; WAR RECORD.

The announcement that A. L. Bullock would make the race for mayor of the city of Ada was received with delight by his many friends in this city. They believe he will make a successful race and that Ada will have one of the few great mayors of the country.

A. L. Bullock is no stranger to the people of this county and especially Ada. He lived in Ada for many years previous to 1915 when he still has a host of friends. In the summer of 1914 he made the race for county attorney against a man who had served only one term. He was elected and began his service in that capacity in January, 1915. He was re-elected two years later.

Mr. Bullock's work as county attorney brought credit not only upon this county, but upon the entire state. Many visiting lawyers pronounced him the greatest prosecuting attorney this state has ever seen. He ran down criminals with such accuracy and skill that the lawless element became frightened, and one midnight assassin attempted to put him out of the way. He narrowly escaped death, but he did not cease his efforts to bring the guilty to justice. His work as county attorney will be remembered for a long time, as he sent to the penitentiary many of the most noted criminals who ever lived in this part of the state.

Mr. Bullock felt the call for service during the war, and he resigned his position as county attorney a few weeks before his term expired and went where he did valiant service under shell fire at the front. Since returning to Ada he has been engaged in the practice of law.

Bullock is a great student of government. He is a learned lawyer and jurist. He is an able orator and would represent Ada on all occasions as few other men in the entire state could do. For accomplishment, for qualifications, for a man who will do things and treat everyone fairly and squarely, A. L. Bullock cannot be excelled in Ada or elsewhere.

RAILROAD CONTROL IS GIVEN OVER

ROADS TODAY BACK IN HANDS OF PRIVATE OWNERS; HINES
ONLY REMNANT OF RY.
ADMINISTRATION.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 1.—The United States Railroad Administration, the government agency which for more than two years carried on the operation of the nation's railroad systems, passed out of existence with the coming of midnight last night. The 23 lines that had been merged into what was virtually one big system, again went under the control of private interests, free to operate in competition as of old. The transfer was without incident and without trouble to the traveling public. In fact, no one was aware of the change from outside appearances.

Of the staff of directors who controlled the roads during the government operation, only Director General Hines remained. He will have no authority in the direction of the operations and remains simply to clear up matters left pending when the government released them. These include more than one thousand claims, contracts and grievances yet to be settled.

Under the so-called railroad reorganization bill, under which the government returned the roads to private owners, but little jurisdiction is retained by the government. Under its terms the Interstate Commerce Commission is given greater power to control rates and compromise of labor disputes is required.

Funeral of Mrs. H. T. Crider

The funeral of Mrs. H. T. Crider was held from the Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 3:30; the minister, C. V. Duan, officiating. On account of the disagreeable weather, the funeral was not largely attended, but those who were present were sincere in their sympathy for the bereaved. The choir rendered beautifully, "Nearer my God to Thee," and "Rock of Ages." A male quartet sang, "Abide with me."

The minister spoke of Mrs. Crider as a devoted wife and mother, and of her ambition to live and raise her family. Mrs. Crider became a Christian in 1908, and she and her husband have been very much interested in the work of the church. The Minister's theme was, "Christianity's message to the sorrowing."

He said that God is able to sustain us at all times. He created all things, including human life. He created our capacity for need, and he is able to supply that need; he created our capacity for sorrow and he is able to support us in that sorrow. He sustained Job, Paul, and Jesus, and he is able to sustain us. "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in time of trouble." In the second place, God is preparing us for other worlds, and this preparation must some times come through the furnace of disappointment and despair. Third, there will be an eternity of bliss for the righteous. "The righteous shall go into eternal life." Finally, we may hope to meet those who have gone before, and who have done the will of the lord. Such is Christianity's message to the sorrowing.

"Life's race well run, Life's work well done, Life's crown well won, Now comes rest."

AMERICAN MEDICAL UNIT INTRODUCES CLEVER
"SPOTLESS TOWN" IDEA IN FAR OFF HOLY LAND

Making Dolls for Palestine's Orphan at the Headquarters of the Palestine Supplies Department in New York.

Up-to-the-minute American doctors with all the ingenuity and skill of modern medicine, are now in Palestine redeeming the land of milk and honey from the disease and unsanitary conditions that have sapped its strength for hundreds of years.

These doctors, many of them noted as among the most skilled surgeons and sanitary experts in the United States, comprise the American Zionist Medical Unit, sent to Palestine by the Zionist Organization of America to make the Holy Land a fit place to live in when the world mass-emigration to the Jewish National Homeland opens up on a large scale. This will be realized as soon as Palestine's political future has been settled by the Treaty with Turkey—a matter of a few months at most. The joint distribution committee helps maintain the unit.

They have waged war against the mosquito, responsible for most of Palestine's malaria, and practically driven the disease out of the country. They are draining the swamp lands and cleaning out the ancient wells—breeding places of most of Palestine's diseases. Hospitals and clinics have been created in the principal cities of the Holy Land—in Jerusalem, Jaffa, Tiberias and Safed—and through the $10,000,000 Palestine Restoration Fund being raised throughout the United States by the Zionist Organization of America, the work of the unit, now known as the Health Department of the Holy Land, is to be greatly extended. An army of 5,000 women through out the principal cities of the United States, under the direction of Mrs.

A. H. Fromenson, head of the Palestine Supplies Department of the Zionist Organization, with headquarters at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, works in connection with the unit, furnishing supplies for the hospitals and clinics, and clothes for Palestine's 4,500 Jewish orphan, through their sewing groups.

To the war orphans of Palestine, Mrs. Fromenson is known as their "American mother," because thru her organization the children are kept supplied with good-looking, up-to-date American clothes.

No "institutional" clothing is sent to Palestine, every effort being made to send as many varied designs as possible, so that the children will not all be dressed alike, as is characteristic of "charity clothes."

To supply new-born babes with clothing, the women's organization has sent the medical unit thousands of layettes, containing twenty pieces of infant apparel, from blankets to safety pins.

All the work of the medical unit is non-sectarian, thousands of Arabs and Christians receiving treatment from the hospitals and clinics. The work of the unit is part of the great efforts of the Zionists to make of Palestine the Jewish Homeland.

TRY TO KIDNAP
THE RICH INDIAN

WHITE WOMAN WHO VAMPED
AND MARRIED JACKSON BARNETT STANDS OFF ENEMIES WITH GUN

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Feb. 27.—An attempt to kidnap Jackson Barnett was frustrated here late yesterday afternoon through quick action on the part of his newly acquired wife, according to a story told by employees of the hotel where the couple are living.

While Mrs. Barnett was using telephone on another floor a large grey touring car containing two young men drove to the curb outside a window where Barnett could be seen sunning himself. Holding up a fish pole and pointing towards the river beyond the city they are said to have attracted the aged Indian's attention and he was about to join the party when one of the men becoming over anxious rushed into the hotel to meet him.

Mrs. Barnett is said to have seen him enter the hotel door and surmising what was happening rushed to her room, pushed the old Indian back into it and turned to face the invaders with a gun. The men lost heart, however, and speeded off up the street.

This is said to be the third attempt to kidnap or entice Barnett away. There is considerable doubt as to who is responsible for the moves. A rumor had it that another woman in Oklahoma had what she claims is a prior lien on the Indian's affections and is attempting to force his return to Henryetta. Mrs. Barnett believes she is being bothered by agents of Carl J. O'Hornett, her husband's guardian. She stayed awake most of last night guarding the door of her room while Barnett slumbered peacefully away. Her attorneys are said to have hired private detectives who arrived from Kansas City today to guard the couple. It is also believed that government secret service men are watching them.

The two Barnetts spent the day quietly between their hotel room and the office of Harold McGugan, chief counsel for Mrs. Barnett. They did not attempt to walk about the city.

Injunction to Tie Up O'Hornett. One of Mrs. Barnett's attorneys left the city late today and is reported to be on his way to federal court at Wichita to file an injunction designed to prevent O'Hornett or any government official from handling any of Barnett's various funds pending the decision in the annulment proceedings which the government attorneys here gave notice would be opened.

Pending the arrival of certified copies of the federal and state court records from Muskogee showing Barnett adjudged incompetent, which the government claims is a fact, legal proceedings will be held in abeyance. The certificates will probably be brought here Friday morning and court action will be begun at once. Long Court Fight ahead.

Harold McGugan of Mrs. Barnett's counsel prophesied an extensive legal fight should the federal authorities insist on the annulment proceedings going through. His contention is that the Oklahoma or federal court decisions are not binding on the question of Barnett's capacity, but that a Kansas jury must pass on the matter before the marriage can be set aside unless Barnett is taken from Kansas jurisdiction.

"If Barnett could be 'shanghaied' the few miles to the Oklahoma border," said McGugan, "We would be entirely blown up. Then the Oklahoma decisions would no doubt control us. That is why we are so fearful of an attempt to kidnap him."

If the question of sanity becomes an issue it is expected both sides will bring alienists from all over the country to give expert testimony as to Barnett's mental fitness.

Barnetts Have Cash. Rumors that Barnett was without funds to defend his case since he can not draw on his bank account without his guardian's permission were denied tonight by Mrs. Barnett.

That she is being financed in her effort to hold her husband, by some interested third party, is the belief among neutral attorneys here. She is known to have had a preliminary sum of $1,000 wired to her credit yesterday and it is said several thousand additional was to be brought here today.

Lowe's Money Wanted. ARDMORE, Feb. 27.—Reports that Judge Thomas Lowe, formerly of Guthrie, and at one time secretary of state for Oklahoma territory had allowed Mrs. Anna Laura Lowe, who is now the wife of Jackson Barnett, wealthy Henryetta Indian, to get a divorce because members of his family objected to the woman as a "vampire," were denied.

here by Mrs. G. L. Gano, daughter of Mr. Lowe, at whose home he is now living.

"Judge Lowe and this woman only lived together for a few weeks," said Mrs. Gano, and the divorce was granted to my father, not to the woman. I do not know the woman. I never saw her. None of the family except Mr. Lowe know anything about her."

Divorce proceedings were begun by Mr. Lowe, according to his daughter, when Mrs. Lowe attempted to get hold of property which was owned by his children.

"Father said that the woman had been so insistent upon marriage that he had been persuaded to marry her. After three or four weeks, according to his statement, she demanded that he turn over to her all his property. She insisted upon having a residence which was owned by one of the children. This he refused to give her, and she refused to live with him."

At the time the divorce was granted, the woman made a plea for alimony, which was denied by Judge Gicuston, at Guthrie.

Soy-bean seed now is of considerable value, and it is essential that all farm-store it so as to prevent deterioration and loss.

The ordinary grain separator can be adjusted to thrash any beans succentage of cracked seed will result.

hulling and split practically none of the beans. Undoubtedly such separators are more satisfactory and economical where a considerable acreage of beans is grown. In sections where there is an extensive seed production, investment in such a machine by a community would be profitable.

Soy beans, if thoroughly dry, can easily be thrashed with a flail. If one has only a small acreage—an acre or so—this method is practical and economical. In a few sections, a corn shredder has been used to advantage in the thrashing work and where the beans are properly cured and dried, the seeds shell out readily, when run through this machine.

Soy beans which have been stacked out of doors or housed in the mow previous to thrashing should be thrashed when the weather is dry and suitable for work of this character. Thrashing should not be attempted until the beans have passed through a thorough sweat and subsequently cured so that the seed is separated readily from the straw.

Valuable Feed for Stock.

The straw obtained from thrashing the soy bean for seed is a valuable feed for all kinds of live stock. In many localities the straw is baled at the time of thrashing and sold.

As soy-bean seeds spoil rather easily if not properly handled, care should be exercised in curing and storing. After the beans are thrashed they should be watched carefully to avoid heating and moulding. When thoroughly dry, there is no such danger. The best plan, according to specialists of the United States department of agriculture, is to spread the seed out on a floor immediately after thrashing and subsequently shovel them from time to time until they are thoroughly dry. The storeroom should be dry and have a free circulation of air. Soy-bean seed loses its viability rather rapidly and it is not safe to hold seed for planting purposes more than two seasons. The seeds of the soy bean, unlike those of the cowpeas, are rarely attacked by weevils or other grain insects.

SAVE FERTILITY OF MANURE

No Better Place to Apply Plant Food
Than on Fall Sown Cover Crops or on Clover.

If stable manure of any kind is available at this season of the year there is no better place to apply it than on the fall sown cover crops, or on clover and grass sods. When thus applied, there will be practically no loss of fertility—much less than if the manure is kept in yards, especially if uncovered.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

by Mary Graham

THE WHIPPOORWILLS.

"I never believe in hurrying," said Mrs. Whippoorwill. "Now, there are so many mother birds who hurry up and have the eggs all hatched out in the spring. But I wait until it is summer. Yes, it has to be June before I so much as lay the eggs. Then there are some birds who do too much;
they fuss over too many eggs.

"I only lay two, but they are beautiful! Ah, such lovely, creamy-looking eggs, with little spots of brown and gray and lavender. And I just lay the eggs on the ground, in the weeds, where it is good and lonely.

"There are some creatures who are so fussy about the sort of home they have. Now, I am only fussy about the neighborhood."

"That is where we agree so perfectly," said Mr. Whippoorwill. "It is the neighborhood that I am fussy about.
All the whippoorwills have been the same way. The family has always cared for the neighborhood.

"You remember our old relative, who was taken to the zoo, don't you?"

"I don't believe I do," said Mrs.
Whippoorwill; "and I am not quite sure that I know what a zoo is."

"I will tell you," said Mr. Whippoor-will. "A zoo is a place where there are animals and birds and snakes and pecocks, and all sorts of creatures. They're by themselves—that is, families are together."

"I am glad to hear that," said Mrs.
Whippoorwill. "I couldn't quite imagine how a lion and giraffe would sit down together and have a chat, any more than a bird would chirp to a snake, who would answer in hisses!"

"They're separated," said Mr. Whippoor-will. "Then children and grown-ups come to see the animals and study them and their ways, and it's really a most interesting place.

"But it wouldn't suit our family.
We, as I said, and as you said, are fussy about the neighborhood. We do not like the neighborhood of the zoo.
We don't care to be where there are lots and lots of animals all around and where we have to stay in just a

"Good and Lonely."

certain little place where anyone can come and look at us.

"So that when they took our old relative to the zoo he let them know that he didn't like it.

"And he let them know in such a clever way. Most people and most creatures would have stormed and raised a great fuss and talked at the top of their lungs and would have not made any one pay any attention to them even then.

"But our old relative was different.
He said not a word. He made not a sound. He wouldn't give the call they wanted to hear. He wouldn't say:

"Whippoorwill, whippoorwill!"

"And so they knew he wouldn't do for the zoo because he wouldn't be natural and at home and happy. So they let him go and he found his voice in the dark, lonely, lovely woods where he had left it!

"So they do not keep us in zoos,
for we do not like the neighborhood.
We like it where it is lonely. Now we are different from our friends the nighthawks. They are not quite so fond of the nights as we are, even though their name would make you think so. They are night birds, of course, but we are fonder of the nights, we are!

"And they will fly over cities and will build their nests on roofs which we would never, never do. We won't go to the cities. We care for the neighborhood of the woods where it is lovely and lonely!

"Folks often get us mixed up with the nighthawk family because we do look alike, but we have bristles from our beaks and black chins and rounded tails so we look quite different, really."

"When the spring comes," said Mrs.
Whippoorwill, "we will move north to some woods, but we will always love the woods and the nights and the loneliness and the loveliness of a quiet, quiet neighborhood where there is no bustle and no noise, and where we can be heard from afar as we sing:
"Whippoorwill, whippoorwill,
whippoorwill, whippoorwill!"

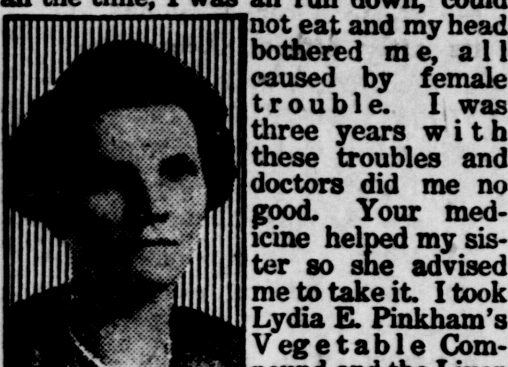

Happiness Never Below Cost.

Happiness is never sold below cost.
In order to have it you must pay the full price—a pure life, a conscience living are cheap imitations which will not stand the wear of one day's testing.

ANOTHER REASON WHY THE WAVES ARE ALWAYS SAD

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way.
When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don'tcare feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c

SOCIALISM COURTS DISASTER

The Portland Daily Journal which is progressive in its political ideas bordering on socialism, balks at the Oregon four per cent interest bill. It would raise banking and insurance rates.

It says such legislation by any western states is courting disaster. A bill is being initiated to limit the legal rate of interest to only 4 per cent and the contract rate only 5 per cent. If it is enacted money would go to other states where higher rates could be obtained.

The Journal says: "You can make the legal rate 4 per cent, but you cannot make people lend their money at that rate. Or, you can make the note or contract rate 5 per cent, the people will themselves decide what to do with their money—they will send it to be loaned in other states where rates are higher."

"The effect would be disastrous to borrowers. Men would withdraw their loans and send the money elsewhere. Money could not be borrowed to finance new industries."

"Merchants could not borrow money with which to extend their business. Builders could not borrow money with which to erect new houses and office structures."

"On homes where there are mortgages now, the lender would demand his money at the expiration of the note, and the homeowner would, in many a case, be unable to borrow the money with which to pay off the mortgage."

Low interest rates stimulate production and enterprise. But one state cannot alone, by mere edict legislate the rate that borrowers may pay for use of money, and if it tries to do this thing alone, great harm will come upon a large part of the people.

POLITICS PENALIZING THE PEOPLE

There was never a time when hampering production of essentials to industry was as great a crime as at this stage of the world.

Congress is still dallying with the oil land leasing bill and price of fuel oil and oil products soar at public expense.

Political lawyers want to appeal suits decided in favor of the Southern Pacific Company's 40,000 acres oil lands in California.

Political litigation has held up that company drilling its oil lands and supplying its railroads and steamboats for ten years.

Even Attorney General Palmer balks at further useless and hopeless appeals in oil land cases and dismisses them as contemptible.

California was called on in 1919 for 475,000,000 gallons naphtha oil products and refineries imported 20,000,000 gallons of crude oil.

Demands in 1920 upon oil refineries will be 600,000,000 gallons short.

If political interference with oil production would let up a few years natural supply and American enterprise would catch up with the demand.

FARM LABOR SHORTAGE

The labor difficulty, unfortunately, is primarily one of supply at any price, and secondarily one of paying wages unprecedented in agricultural work. A newspaper recently made a survey of labor conditions in California and reports as result of its investigation that California will this year produce smaller crops than heretofore and that the outstanding reason is the shortage and high cost of farm labor. Lands that formerly produced, it finds, will lie fallow in some instances. In others, lands heretofore, used for crops that require heavy labor are being planted to forage crops that can be handled largely by machinery. Beet sugar production will suffer severely. Such conditions are not confined to California but are found general throughout the country.

The garden seed that the government sends out are the biennial kind—at least they are distributed only in election years.

The American Federation of Labor now says that congress has been an absolute failure. That is interesting but it is not news.

A new telephone directory for Ada is to published in 1922. The one published in 1909 is now somewhat out of date.

Priceless Memories of the Great War

TEN years from now the kiddies of today will be reading about the Great War and reviving the songs that stirred our patriotism in the dark days of 1918.

Do you realize that those songs can never again be sung as they were sung during the Great War. Could anyone sing "We are coming Father Abraham" as the Yanks sang it in the sixties—or "Dixie" as those Johnnie Rebs sang it then? Could anyone sing "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight" the way we middle aged folks used to sing it in Spanish-American War days? Of course not. The same with the songs of the Great War.

We have a limited stock of Edison RE-CREATIONS of war songs sung by popular Edison artists during the war. They will be priceless within a few years.

Come in and listen to them and add a few to your collection for your children and your children's children.

STEEL TRUST NOT DISSOLVED

SUPREME COURT FINDS THAT TO DISRUPT BIG CORPORATION WOULD NOT BE TO THE INTEREST OF PUBLIC.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The supreme court today upheld four of the main United States Steel Corporation and subsidiary combinations in the iron and steel industry.

On motion to dissolve the so-called "Steel Trust" the court dismissed the federal government anti-trust Sherman lawsuit for dissolution.

In rendering the decision Justice McKenna said that since 1911 no act in violation of the law can be charged against the steel corporation, and that it was the opinion of the court that the practices complained of by the government had been abandoned.

Justice McKenna said that to grant the government's request for dissolution of the corporation and restore conditions in the industry as they were twenty years ago would be impracticable and would disrupt the business and would not be in the popular interest.

Justices Clark, Day and Pitney dissented.

MATTRESS FACTORY BURNED YESTERDAY.

The mattress factory near the Katy station, belonging to Minor Copeland, but occupied by E. A. Smith, burned Sunday morning about 8:30.

The fire probably originated from a disconnected stove pipe and before the alarm was turned in or before the fire department could reach the scene of the conflagration, the roof had already fallen in.

Mr. Smith was severely burned about the shoulder in removing his family out of the burning building, but by his heroic efforts succeeded in doing so.

The building was a total loss and was not insured.

Misses Bertha Bray and Grace Grey, former students of the Normal, left Saturday for their homes in Stratford, after attending the past term of the Normal.

Yesterday at the Christian Church

The audiences at the Christian Church were noticeably increased over those of the previous Sunday. The flu is evidently fleeing. We were not quite back to normal, but believe we shall be by next Sunday, and beyond. Four persons united with the church yesterday. They were, Mrs. W. P. Casey, and her three daughters, Lehome, Jerda, and Nada. All but Nada came on statement. Nada, who is just about eight years of age, made confession of her faith in the morning, and was baptized at the opening of the worship last evening. Katharine Nesbit, who made the confession the previous Sunday, and was baptized Wednesday evening, came forward and to her, also, was extended the hand of Christian fellowship. This made five additions in all. A fine spirit pervaded the meetings all day.

AMERICAN INSTITUTION MUST BE DESTROYED

Many people do not understand the Single Tax—therefore this advertisement. Opposite the city hall in Ada is a lot which I am told has been rented to an oil company for $65 per month. The oil company must improve it. I don't know who owns the lot and it makes no difference as I do not condemn individuals. But land values belong to the community and this $65 per month should be taken for taxes and the improvements on the lot should be exempt. This $65 per month and all other ground rent is taken out of the product created by capital and labor. The more the community grows in population, the more landlords can take. Ground rent is the bottomless pit into which the wealth of the world is poured. It makes no difference how high wages go or what profits business men and capitalists receive—the landlord raises the ground rent and finally gets the increase. Prove it for yourself by asking the business men of Ada how much their ground rent has been raised within the past two years. The whole cause of the H. C. L. today is ground rent. If you want to really hit the man responsible don't shoot up—don't shoot out—you are being subordinated—shoot down. Suit taxing industry and thrift. Make the lot where the Model store is located pay into the tax fund $150 per month—it's full rental value—and under the building and contents. Make the lot where the First National Bank is located pay the same and all other lots pay in proportion—whether improved or unimproved. Do this and you will settle forever the question of the H. C. L., you will stop the fight between capital and labor and end most of modern poverty, disease and crime. Then our city will grow as it should grow. The earth is not wealth—it is simply the God given element from which all wealth is drawn. One man has as much right to live on the earth as another and land values or ground rent belongs to the community. Improvements should not be taxed—to tax them is confiscation and robbery. The American Institution known as Landlordism grew up with Kings. It is the worst thing we inherited from Kings. The time has come when it must be destroyed.

GARDENS AGAIN ARE IMPORTANT

Just as Essential This Year as During War Period, Say Federal Specialists.

MUST PRODUCE MORE FOOD

Several Hardy Crops Will Withstand Considerable Frost and Should Be Planted Early—Make Plantings at Short Intervals.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Gardens are going to be just as important the coming year as during the war period, United States department of agriculture specialists declare. High food costs, they say, are likely to remain until more to eat is grown and distributed. Farm gardens, village gardens, and city back yard gardens all will help. Food produced in the garden not only helps balance the family budget but releases that grown on farms for the use of people who are entirely dependent upon others.

With the lengthening of the days it will not be long until land can be worked, and such hardy crops as peas, onions, lettuce, radishes and beets planted, especially throughout the lower Gulf Coast region. The average date of the last killing frost of the winter in this section is not later than March 15. This zone includes the southern portion of South Carolina, the southern half of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, almost the whole of Louisiana and all southeastern Texas. Several of the more hardy garden crops, including those mentioned above, will withstand considerable frost and may be planted at least a month before the average date for the last frost.

Take a Chance on Early Planting.

Irish potatoes are easily injured by freezing, but they require about a month to come up and may be planted at about the same time as lettuce and radishes. It pays to take a chance on the early planting of certain of the more hardy garden vegetables. If they are killed or severely injured they may be replanted. A good method is to make about three plantings at intervals of two weeks, and if the first planting is killed the later ones take its place; if not killed, early vegetables will be produced and the second and third plantings provide a continuous supply.

Keeping up the gardening interest throughout the season is just as important as making an early start. About the time the more hardy vegetables are planted in the garden the seeds of tomato, eggplant, and peppers should be started in a window box indoors. By the time the ground and the air are warm these plants will be of good size and ready to set in the garden. In the meantime a few "frostproof" or hardy cabbage plants may be set out. Next will come the planting of snap or string beans. Then follows the planting of Lima beans, summer squashes, melons of all kinds, and other of the more tender vegetables.

Remember the Greens, Too.

And don't forget the greens. We all need more greens in our diet. Spinach, kale, and turnips will keep you supplied with greens during the late fall and early winter, but you should have a bed of spinach planted now, in the Gulf Coast region, for early spring greens. Early turnips and beets are excellent for use as greens and later you can have delicious Swiss chard. Bassella withstands heat and makes satisfactory summer greens. The main point in getting the most out of your garden is to begin early and keep going throughout the entire season, making every foot of land produce to the limit.

OBTAINING EGGS IN WINTER

Supply of Bone Meal or Beef Scraps Should Be Kept Before Hens at All Times.

The farmer who wants winter eggs should keep a box of bone meal or beef scraps before the fowls, or give them a feed of freshly-cut bones every few days. In addition, supply them with vegetables occasionally, make them scratch for all their grain feed, and keep the fowls warm at night.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns.

That women are going deep into politics, the same as men, and campaigning for future presidents of the United States, may be gleaned from the fact that Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns of Chicago is chairman of the woman's division of the national committee that is fighting for the nomination of Gov. Frank Lowden of Illinois for president.

Mrs. Dobyns urges other women to get into politics, too. It's interesting, educational and instructive, she says. Although some have said that women in politics is bad for the home, her own home is an extremely happy one, Mrs. Dobyns says. She is a Republican herself, but she believes every woman should join some party.

"Join a party," she advises women "To be non-partisan is the same as being neutral during the war. If you do not think parties are clean, it is your business to get in and help clean them up."

Mrs. Dobyns is chairman of the woman's branch of the Illinois Republican state central committee. That ought to be sufficient politics for anybody, but Mrs. Dobyns is in deeper than that. She's also a member of the woman's committee of one hundred of the Republican national committee.

Suffragists Rebuffed

The small body of Spanish women who favor the franchise for their sex and who are arranging for the International Woman Suffrage Alliance Congress to be held there in May are meeting with considerable opposition. It is believed they will find it difficult to find a hall in which to hold the congress.

The bishop of Madrid, whose sanction takes priority over the government, has not yet given his permission for the use of the Royal opera house, and, according to one of the woman organizers, is not likely to give it. Other bishops have denounced the movement, declaring it to be anti-Christian and anti-Roman Catholic.

New Mexico Ratifies

The house of representatives of the New Mexico legislature has ratified the suffrage amendment by a vote of 36 to 10.

The senate passed the resolution by a vote of 17 to 5. New Mexico is the thirty-second state to ratify. Which will be next?

NEW SKATING CHAMPS CROWNED

Two new international amateur ice skating champions were crowned at the recent races at Lake Placid, N. Y. Everett McGowan of St. Paul won the men's title by piling up a total of 120 points. He won the half-mile, mile, two-mile and three mile races. He was unable to win any of the dashes, however. Joe Moore of Lake Placid finished second in the point scoring, giving Mc-Gowan a hard fight. Rose Johnson of Chicago won the woman's title by winning 110 points. Esmeralda Dunlap, another Chicago girl, finished second with seventy points. They had the glory practically cornered, none of the other feminine contestants scoring over thirty points. Miss Johnson clinched the title by winning the half mile race.

BRITAIN'S ADVERSE TRADE BALANCE BIG

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Great Britain's adverse trade balance for the year amounted to 669,000,000 pounds. Against this will apply Britain's "invisible exports" which have been estimated by the Board of Trade at 400,000,000 pounds for freight charges, 80,000,000 pounds in interest on foreign investments, and 40,000,000 pounds in insurance charges, bank charges, commissions, etc. These would total 520,000,000 pounds, leaving an adverse balance of 149,000,000 pounds as compared with the pre-war favorable balance of 226,000,000. A considerable reduction of the excess of imports over exports is expected in 1920 for two reasons in particular, says the American Chamber of Commerce in London.

Notice!

All persons having empty ice cream packers please set them out where they can be picked up by driver this week.

Ada Ice and Cold Storage Co.

First, the imports in the early months of 1919 are stated to have consisted largely of balances of deliveries of war materials which will of course, not recur in 1920. Second, 1919 was largely a year of re-stocking for British Manufacturers. In 1920 therefore the American Chamber says Britain should be able to save accordingly on imports of raw materials while the exports of finished goods should be increased.

Despite the fact that Britain's 1919 imports were more than twice her 1913 imports in value, the American Chamber points out that they were less than four-fifths the 1913 imports in quantity. The average cost of 1913 imports figures out at about 14 pounds a ton; in 1919 it was about 41 pounds a ton. Great Britain is still importing less than her pre-war quantities.

A review of the monthly totals shows an almost unbroken rise in the export of British goods, culminating in a yearly total of practically 793,000,000 pounds. Of this 632,000,000 pounds or almost 80 percent, were manufactured articles a tribute to the degree to which British production is under way despite the crippling difficulties of industrial disputes since the armistice.

According to the American Chamber, prospects for British trade for the coming year, both for export and re-export, are unusually promising.

Marsans deserted the Yanks in 1918, because he was not given a regular job in the outfield. He was obtained from St. Louis July 17, 1917, in exchange for Lee Magee and went great guns until he broke his leg, August 10, that season, in a game at the polo grounds and was out the rest of the campaign.

He became peeved when Hug tried out Elmer Miller in center field the next spring and lit out.

Missouri Pioneer and Indian Fighter Has Passed Away

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 28.—The passing of another of the pioneer plainmen and Indian fighters who brought civilization into the West was chronicled in the recent death of James B. Bullard at his farm home near here. He was 73 years old.

Into the wild life of the west, Bullard and a brother, John, threw themselves following the Civil War. Because of his knowledge of woodcraft and scoutcraft, Bullard was made a chief of scouts and attached to the forces of General Crook, who headed regulars sent into the west to protect settlers from the Indians. Bullard and his brother participated in many fights with the Indians coincident with the settling of New Mexico and Arizona.

The Bullard brothers were known in New Mexico at the time of the discovery of a rich silver lode near Silver City. It was James Bullard who named the town which grew up almost overnight. While making their home at Silver City, a band of Indian horse thieves terrorized the territory. John organized a party of cowboys and miners and pursued the Indians. In the clash the Indians were scattered, but John, after wounding the leader, was in turn shot to death by the Indian leader who raised on his elbow and fired as the plainman approached. The story goes that the white men scalped the Indian leader and carried the scalp back to James Bullard, who was away from home at the time, as proof that his brother's death had been avenged. The Indian scalp was one of Mr. Bullard's most prized possessions.

Quiet and unassuming, Mr. Bullard related only to those with whom he was intimate the stories of his adventures, which took him from the Mexican to the Canadian borders.

ATTEMPT TO KILL
ENGLISH MINISTER

By the Associated Press

London, March 1.—It is positively learned that an unsuccessful attempt has been made to assassinate Lloyd Hampton Ectau, minister to Helsingfors.

Church of Christ

The morning sermon, delivered by Dr. Elkins, at the Church of Christ, "How to overcome every temptation," was well received being in part as follows:

"The temptor offered Christ three great propositions and temptations and made his attack at the weakest point. When Christ was nearly famished with hunger, having fasted forty days, Satan appeared and said that if you are the Son of God command that these stones become bread. After placing Christ on a high pinnacle on the temple in the Holy City, the temptor says that if you are the Son of God cast yourself down for it is written, etc., and here misquoted the scripture. Then he took Christ into a high mountain and showed him the great kingdoms and their glory and offered them to Christ if he would fall down and worship him.

"Each of these temptations was met by a direct and final scriptural quotation which put the temptor to silence and to flight. Christ did not fall down there in the presence of Satan and pray for strength and power to overcome the devil, but set an example for us showing what a full grown Christian should be and how he should be equipped in this great conflict between the two forces, the good and the bad, between God and Satan.

"It is easy for us to learn all about football, basket ball and athletics in general, politics and how the world is run, but it is next to impossible, it seems, for us to learn and to know the Word of God, the sword of the Spirit, a christian only weapon that he may use with success in meeting the wiles of Satan and his weakest link, so is a character no stronger than its weakest point.

"The physical body is sustained by proper food taken at regular intervals every day, and without this food the body would perish and die, and so it is with the spiritual body. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts. Col. 3:16.

The evening sermon was a brief and concise presentation of the plan of salvation. Dr. Elkins seemed at his best and the sermon was well received and enjoyed by all present.

The third lecture of a series on the divine origin of the bible was postponed to next Sunday evening. Dr. Elkins announces that in these lectures every phase of higher criticism will be met, as well as the theories of Darwin and educators, doctors and lawyers, as well as all others, inclined to believe these things, are especially invited to come.

CLEAR GOVERNOR IN

vant, is selling himself to every corporation attorney who appears before him and asks the right to charge more money for public services. Neither do we believe that Governor Robertson is accepting a part of the few paltry dollars unfortunate convicts are able to pay attorneys to represent them before the pardon and parole department of this state.

"One more thing the committee desires to mention to this honorable body. On the last day of the session in its closing hours, Campbell Russell presented your committee with an affidavit charging Governor Robertson with ignorance or the commission of an act that involves moral turpitude. This affidavit does not bear upon any matters concerning the pardon and parole department, but relates to a resolution pending before the legislature at its last session. The commission attached to the affidavit was to advise the senate of the governor's construction of the language in the resolution and merely called the attention of the legislature to the effect he believed such resolution would have.

"The matter mentioned is utterly void of inference that the governor was acting in an improper manner or attempting to deceive or mislead the senate or members of the legislature.

"The only conclusion that your committee can come to is that Campbell Russell, having failed utterly to produce anything that could sustain him in his vicious attack upon Governor Robertson and the pardon and parole department, now attempts to inject an affidavit that will give him excuse to continue his attack upon Governor Robertson and upon the legislature.

Never Saw Russell.
"Governor Robertson testified before the committee that Campbell Russell never had been in his office but once since he was inaugurated. He testified that a few days after he was inaugurated Russell came to his office and asked him to assist in getting the legislature to vitalize section 12A of the constitution. The governor said he told Russell that he could not do so because he did not believe it was right and that Russell replied that he would be after him hereafter.

"Your committee concludes that Russell is carrying out his threat, and that the animus of the whole fight against the governor is because the governor did not see fit to assist him in a legislative measure."

The complete report of the committee with a stenographic record of all testimony given during the hearing will be published in the journal of the house, it was ordered. Copies of the report and record will be sent also to all newspapers of the state.

Officers of the investigating committee in addition to Nesbitt were Asa E. Walden of Marietta, presiding judge; George B. Schwabe of Nowata, clerk; and Edwin Dabney, of Altus, official interrogator. Other committee members were Ben F. Harrison of Calvin, Lon Morris of Walter, L. C. McNabb of Sallisaw, W. T. Anglin of Holdenville, and A. E. Craver of Bartlesville. Schwabe was appointed in place of J. S. Mabon of Miami, who was excused from service after having been named on the committee.

The affidavit referred to in the report as having been presented to the committee accompanies a letter recently published as having been written by the governor March 27, 1919, to a member of the senate. It urges the defeat of an amendment to senate joint resolution No. 15, providing that in assessing the tax due upon oil the premium paid in the field shall be included in the determination of the price of the oil.

Russell Not Surprised.
Campbell Russell said tonight that he was not surprised at the report made by the investigating committee and that he would continue as in the past to publish his periodical and present such statements regarding the governor and the pardon and parole department as he considered desirable.

"It was clear from the start that the committee was following a pre-arranged program and driving desperately to find a hook upon which to hang the whitewash bucket," Russell said.

"I did not expect to prove anything with the witnesses the committee called. I suggested that they call Gabe Parker and other witnesses but they ignored the suggestion."

Workers' Conference

The Workers' Conference of the Christian Sunday School will meet this evening at the church at 8:30. Every teacher and officer should be present at this meeting. It is as necessary for the superintendent to have meetings with his officers and teachers as it is for the president of the United States to have meetings with his cabinet. No Sunday school can be as successful without these conferences as with them. Those who come are asked to be present promptly on time, so the meeting can begin as soon as the Teacher Training class is through.

Teacher Training Class

The Teacher Training Class will meet at the Christian Church this evening at 7:30. They will study "The Teacher's Preparation" and "Principles in Teaching." One hour will be spent in this study. All persons who desire to become better prepared to instruct others, who are now teachers or who may become teachers, are invited to unite with this class.
